Hebrews 11:1,6; 2 Corinthians 5:7;
Hebrews 4:12 (NKJ)

- 1. In Sunday’s message, Pastor MGB suggested that we should visualize ourselves at the top of a well, with faith as a crank that we can use to reel in our blessings out of the well.
- Discuss.

2. Pastor MGB indicated that wishes, wants, and desires are imposters for Biblical faith.

- Why is a wish or desire different from Biblical faith?
- How is hope different from Biblical faith?
- What can you do to convert hope into Biblical faith?

3. Pastor MGB indicated that Biblical faith is not something you can see. Biblical faith is believing what you cannot see.

- Discuss.
- Why is it not Biblical faith if you can see it?
- Why does it displease God if you prefer to wait until you can see it?"

4. The Pastor describes “mental assent” or “mental belief” as imposters of Biblical faith.

- Discuss.
- What do you think the Pastor means by “mental assent?”
- What do you think the Pastor means by “mental belief?”
- Why do you think the Pastor draws a distinction between “mental belief” and Biblical faith?
