FTPG06-“To Get What He Got You Have To Do What He Did”

Scripture Reference:
Romans 4:16-22 KJV

- 1. In Sunday’s message, Pastor MGB describes four essentials of “strong faith.”

The first essential Pastor MGB described is to “Anchor your hope into what God promised.”

- Discuss.
- How is it possible to have hope when the situation is hopeless?

2. The second essential Pastor MGB described is, “Don’t let circumstances move you from what God promised.” (For Abraham, that meant not allowing the fact that he and Sarah were old and barren to discourage him.)

- Discuss.

3. The third essential Pastor MGB described is, “Don’t argue with or judge what God promised.” (Romans 4:20 says that Abraham did not stagger or waver at the promise of God through unbelief.)

- Discuss.

3. The fourth essential Pastor MGB described requires us to “Be fully persuaded that God is able to do what God promised.” (Abraham was fully persuaded that God was able to do what He had promised.)

- Why is it necessary to be fully persuaded that God is able to do it?
- Why would it be just as important to recognize what it is that God promised?

APPLICATION QUESTION

- 1. How can you apply each of the four essentials to an area in your life where your faith is not strong.
